

The Daily Gazetteer.

SATURDAY, MAY 6. 1738.

N^o 894.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

ACCORDING to Letters of the 11th of April, O. S. from Petersburg, a List is published there of the Emperor's Forces that are to serve in Hungary, Transylvania and Servia, which makes them to amount to 140,000 Men. They have Letters from Ispahan that say, Kouli Kan was still employed in the Siege of Candahar, and that the Inhabitants are defending it with all the Bravery possible, and make frequent sallies, in which they commonly succeed, murdering all the Prisoners that they take, and carrying in nothing but such Horfes as they can lay their Hands on; from whence 'tis infer'd, that Provisions are wanting in the Town, and that they make Use of those Animals for their Subsistence.

Letters of the 19th ult. O. S. from Vienna say, that all the Talk of a pretended Conspiracy in Transylvania, was founded on nothing more than a Suspicion conceived by the Prince of Lobkowitz, that something was carrying on to the Prejudice of the State, and the Notice he thereupon sent to some of the Transylvanian Gentry that came to Hermanstadt to be present at the Dyet of the Province, nor to depart the Town till fresh Orders, tho' the Dyet was at an End; and this was what really gave Occasion to the Report that several of those Gentlemen had been arrested. Letters of the 2d Instant from Temeswaer say, that a Detachment of Turks which enter'd into that Jurisdiction with a Design to seize the Copper Mines at Neuterkerk, had been beat by the Germans, and obliged to retire with the Loss of 23 Men killed on the Spot, and 30 others taken Prisoners. They talk of a Manifesto which is speedily to be published against Prince Ragotski, who is therein declared a Rebel, with a Reward of 100,000 Florins to whoever shall take him alive, and 80,000 to the Man that brings his Head.

A Letter of the 20th ult. O. S. from Ulm says, that the Council of that City having several times met to consider of the Punishment proper to be inflicted upon the Burgomaster Harsloffler, for having shot the Burgomaster de Besserer, with a Pistol, in the Hall where the Council was assembled, he received his Sentence there on the 17th, by which he was condemned first to be degraded from all his Employments, and then to be shot to Death. On the 19th, at 5 o'Clock in the Morning, the said Sentence was executed privately in the Court Yard of the New Prison, in which he had been kept Prisoner. The Execution was performed by 4 Grenadiers of the Garrison, in Presence of the Deputies of the Council, 2 Clergymen, and a Detachment of the Guards. The Domesticks of the Deceased having laid his Body in a Coach, it was carried towards Night into one of the Church Yards of the Town, where it was interr'd in the same Place with several of his Kindred.

I R E L A N D.

Armagh, April 19. This Day James Hamilton, Peruke-maker, was Executed for the Murder of the Bailiff at Middleton. He behav'd during his whole Confinement, in a very Christian-like Manner, and the Day of his Execution was agreeable thereto. At the Gallows he spent near three Hours reading, praying and singing Psalms, and thro' the whole with Courage, worthy a Person who hop'd by Death to Change this miserable Life, for one of Joy.

Wexford, April 22. A Man who was condemn'd at our Assizes to the hang'd for Cow-stealing, had an Iron Collar prepared against the Day of Execution, when he put it under his Shirt, by which Means after he had hung for a considerable Time, he was cut down alive, which one of the Bailiffs perceiving, put his Hand on the Man's Breast, and there feeling some Cords which were used to prevent the Collar's rising, open'd the Shirt and discover'd the Collar, which being taken off, he was tied up again, and hang'd till he was dead.

Drogheda, April 23. Mr. Steers, the English Engineer, has gone so far on his Plan for making the River Boyne Navigable, that a Ship of an Hundred Tons may safely pass to our Quay. He expects to complete the Work in three Years. Mr. Prime Serjeant has subscribed 100 l. towards it.

Youghall, April 23. Mr. Garret Stephens of this Place, has brought a noble young Vulture from Seville, which he took by Accident, as it attempted to fly over the River of Seville. It is very large, its Wings extending near 9 Feet from Tip to Tip, and its Neck of a very great Length; its grown so Tame, while on board among the Sailors, that it will suffer its Head to be scratched, which it will lay down for that Purpose, being spoke to. A Gentleman who went to see it, said, that tho' young, it is much larger than those Vultures that are kept as a great Curiosity in the Tower of London.

Monaghan, April 25. This Day James Irvin and John Quin were executed pursuant to their Sentence, both confessing the Facts for which they died.

Irvin made a large Discovery of several Rogues concern'd in Robberies, Horse-stealing, and receiving of stolen Goods. He died a Protestant.

The Flux is very rife in this Country, and many die of it.

Longford, April 25. We had this Day, for about an Hour's Continuance, the most violent Shower of Hail that has been seen, and of so large a Size, that it has destroyed all our Fruit-Trees, and even beat the Thatch off our Houses; it extended about a quarter of a Mile round the Town.

Enniskilling, April 26. Yesterday we had here the greatest Thunder and Lightening that has been remembered, together with such a Shower of Hail as has not been seen: It beat the Thatch off the Houses, and was a Yard deep upon the Ground in an Hour's Time.

There have been several Robberies committed here of late.

Last Saturday Miss Molly Mercer of this Town, was married to Dr. Grior.

Dublin, April 29. Yesterday the Coroner's Inquest sat on the Body of Nicholas Ennis, who was found murdered in Goat Alley, near Stephen's-street, and brought in their Verdict, Willful Murder.

On Thursday last died of a spotted Fever, Mr. Provand, an eminent Apothecary on the Combe.

The same Day there was a Lodge of Free Masons held at the Eagle Tavern on Cork-hill. Present, the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Tyrone, Grand Master of all Ireland; Cornelius O Callaghan, Esq; Deputy Grand Master; Thomas Wetherill, and Robert O Callaghan, Esqs; Wardens; Mr. Thomas Griffith, Secretary, and others; when William Onslow, Esq; Captain Buxton, Marcus Lowther, Esq; Mr. Henry Bailie, Cornet James Bailie, and Mr. Henry White, were admitted Members of that Antient and Honourable Society.

This Week several Officers embarked for their Posts at Gibraltar and Port Mahon.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Anglesey, and the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Limerick, are expected from England every Day.

Yesterday arrived here, the Right Hon. the Earl of Orrery, and several other Persons of Distinction from England.

Last Sunday Francis Duggan, Esq; was married to Susannah Brabazon, only Daughter of James Brabazon, Esq; deceased.

C O U N T R Y N E W S.

Chester, May 1. On Thursday last ended our Races; the St. George's Plate was won by Richard William's dark Bay Horse, Young Squirrel.

At the said Races the 10 l. Plate was won by John Wynne, Esq's; Chestnut Horse, Lady's Delight.

And the 30 l. Plate was won by Charles Pelham, Esq's; Chestnut Horse, White-Stock.

Aylesbury, April 29. On Monday last a very whimsical Affair happened at a Village called Kingston in Oxfordshire, which was as follows: An eminent Attorney of Watlington, and his two Friends, returning in the Evening from Aylesbury, was met at a little Bridge within a Mile of the fore-mentioned Village by a Man, who called himself the Hayward. This Person, if you'll believe him, has an unlimited Power to stop every Gentleman that comes that Way; and if upon Examination his Horse is not found plaster'd up to the Belly with Mud and Dirt, it is thought sufficient Evidence to commit him for trespassing on the Cow Path, and not keeping the common Road; accordingly the Lawyer's Horse being the tallest, wanted an Inch or two of the Mark, to the Fellow, with a sullen Air that bespoke his Authority, laid hold of his Bridle, as Luck would have it, and led him along through thick and thin with great Deliberation: The Gentlemen who accompanied the Attorney, observing what had happened, began to suspect that he had been guilty of some Male Practices there, and so were inquisitive to know the Nature of his Offence, and the Manner of Punishment: To which the Hayward very graciously answered, that they should know what he had done, and should pay for it before he parted with him: He was seen, continued he, ride up our Cow Path in the Morning, and I am sure he came the same Way back again, for there's scarce any Dirt on his Horse above Mid-leg, and if he had come in the Highway, he must have been up to the Back.

The Gentlemen having heard the Case, resolved not to desert their Friend in his Misfortunes, and chose rather to share his Fate, than forfeit his Esteem; so that after a slow and solemn Procession, they were at last conducted to a Place vulgarly called the Pound, attended by a numerous Court of Men, Women, and Children, who all express'd a Sort of Savage Satisfaction at getting a Lawyer within their Clutches.

But they were no sooner shut within the Pound, than one of the Gentlemen pulling a Paper out of his Pocket, which he call'd a Proclamation, read a Sort of Gibberish; and in the Name of King George commanded them to disperse. This had the desired Effect, for within a few Minutes there was scarce a Soul to be seen, except it was peeping out at a Window.

In about an Hour after, the Gentlemen thought proper to remove themselves by Habeas Corpus to an adjacent Alehouse; but there being no hopes of moving the Horses in the same Manner, recourse was had to the Under-Sheriff for Writs of Replevin in order to release their dumb Prisoners; which being brought, and all things duly perform'd, the Constable who was there present, was charged with the Execution of them; but he imagining his own Authority superior to that of the Sheriff in his own Parish, refused to obey the Order, and charged the whole Company present to aid and assist him to lay the Sheriff's Deputy in the Stocks, for offering to shew such a thing to him as to unreasonable a Time of the Night: Upon the Whole, the Deputy was forced to execute the Warrant himself, while the Constable stood with his Staff at a Distance, to watch that the Horses did not Escape by jumping over the Pound.

This is to give Notice,

THAT there will be leaped at Sly-field, near Leatherhead in Surrey, a famous Stallion, known by the Name of Sally Slouch, being the strongest bred Horse in England, and of the highest Blood: His true Pedigree will be shewn with him, and attested under the Lord's Hands that bred him; in his sixth Year old he won the four hundred Royal Guineas, commonly call'd King's Plates, viz. Guilford, Salisbury, Winchester and Canterbury. He beat a Horse of his Grace the Duke of Bolton's, at Winchester, that went from thence to York, and won the Royal Guineas there from all the best Horses the North produced that Year; the next Year he beat a famous Horse of the Duke of An-catter's, at Grantham, for the forty Guineas that had been a King's Plate Horse, and won all the best Plates in England the two foregoing Years. The Odds before Starting was six to four on the Duke's Horse; from thence he came to Hump-tington, and won the forty Guineas there, and thence he went to Leighton-Buzzard, and won the fifty Guineas there, against a Horse of the Duke of Bolton's, that his own Groom gave him Grace 200 Guineas for two Years after, when his Grace was pleased to cast him out of his String of Horses, and at the same Time beat a Horse of Mr. Greenwood's, that cost 300 Guineas, and had won the King's Plates of York, Lincoln, and Newmarket, the foregoing Season; which Horse beat a Horse at Newmarket, that had won five King's Plates that Season: He won all the 12 Stone Plates that he was qualified to run for, for some Time after, and the Gentleman that had him then, refused 600 Guineas for him, and when he was taken out of Training last June, challeng'd any Horse in England to run the best of three Heats with 16 Stone a-piece over Guildford, for 300 Guineas each Heat.

N.B. This Horse was Fox-hunted when he was five Years old, and rode by Esq. Howe of Gloucestershire, who is as tough a Fox-hunter as any in England, and was sold by him that Year for 100 Guineas, and is leaped now, in order to get a Race of strong Cattle, if possible, for the Picture of the Gentleman of England, that are Lovers of that old and honorable, as well as healthful Diversion of Hunting, not doubting, but a Horse may be as valuable to carry a Nobleman or Gentleman, &c. as they are to carry their Boys, for which they give four or five hundred Guineas each. This Horse is now as fresh, as sound, and free from all Blemishes, as when he was sold, and shall leap at Five Guineas a Mare, if she prove in heat, if not, nothing but Half a Crown to the Groom.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellence in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Bumps, Roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and the brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFYER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Linnen, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it under various other Names, because therefore of such Impostitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above mentioned at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.

An Infallible and Instant Cure

For DEAFNESS, THICKNESS of HEARING, PAIN or NOISE in the EARS, &c. by the true Chymical Specifick Drops.

WHICH infinitely excel all other Me-ever offer'd to the Publick, or known in the whole World; for they directly cure Deafness, be it ever so bad, and all Thick-ness of Hearing and Noise in the Ears, almost at once, and after all other Means have failed, and without Trouble, or the least Uneasiness whatever, as many Thousands have experienced.

They effectually remove all Pain occasion'd by Cold, Strangeness the Tympanum or Drum of the Ear, free the auditory Nerve from Obstruction, and remedy all Defects of the Hearing Faculty, almost in an instant, causing those to hear exceeding quick and well, who before were in a Manner totally Deaf.

Hundreds who were so very bad, as not able to hear a Drum when beat close by them, and therefore despaired of being ever relieved, have been quickly and perfectly cured by them, to their great Joy and Admiration.

In a Word, nothing in Nature can come near them for the certain and almost immediate Cure of DEAFNESS proceeding from what Cause soever; but the great Efficacy and Reputation they have justly gained for many Years past, have occasion'd (as usual in such Cases) many Counterfeits to come abroad; beware therefore of such Impostitions, these excellent and only true Specifick Drops being to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentle-women at the two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard, in the Mitre, 1. 3. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, and no where else in England.
